Hidden cost of owning your car

Your car is covered by the Ford manufacturer warranty for 3 years or 60,000 miles. After this the cost of repair is met by yourself, unless of course you have a Ford Protect Gold warranty. As the age and mileage of your vehicle increases, the risk of an unexpected mechanical failure also increases, whilst an electrical failure can occur at any time.

Where is your vehicle on the graph below and more importantly, where will it be in 3 years time?

◆ Can't afford it

You are precisely the person who most needs Ford Protect. How would you pay for any repairs once your manufacturer's balance of warranty (or 3 month warranty) has expired?

White Goods warranties are at least 50% of the cost of the product. Ford Protect is less than 10%.

◆ Ford's are meant to be reliable

Mechanically all cars are reliable, however your vehicle has Air Conditioning, CD Player, Power Steering, Electric Windows, Central Locking, Sensors. As cars get older and the mileage increases the risk of failure to one of the thousands of parts on your vehicle also increases.

◆ Balance of existing warranty is enough

Problems do not occur in the first few months, they usually occur in 2 - 3 years time, as the car ages and you are liable for repairs. You need protection for the full period of your ownership.

◆ Warranties aren't worth the paper they are written on

This a Ford Approved cover and the Gold cover also protects against wear and tear to covered parts, up to 70,000 miles. Isn't it better if somebody else pays for unexpected repair bills on your vehicle for as long as you own your vehicle.

◆ Warranties are a waste of money - I never claim

All warranties are a waste of money until you have an unexpected repair bill. Why have car, life, house cover if you never claim, just in case. One claim could pay for the warranty.
